To whom it may concern

The NCAGE code "D7575" lists the above-mentioned company data and it is valid and accessible worldwide. Therefore, you will be able to mark the products of your company with this NCAGE code. A certificate or the like will not be issued.

It is possible, however, that you can access these data in the NMCRL of NAMSA. There, you can find all data, i.e. also NSNs and Item of Supply Concepts. The NMCRL must be paid for.

Best regards
